You are entitled to know what personal data we use, why we use it, how we store it and for how long, and who we might share it with and why. Personal data is any information which provides details about an individual to someone else. The individual must be identifiable from the information, if the information is fully anonymised it is no longer classed as personal information.

Information we collect and use

- Contact details
- Name
- Other Agencies involved
- Relevant case information (which may include special category data such as medical history)

How we get your information

We get applicant information in two ways – it is supplied to us directly (or via a planning agent on their behalf) or we receive it from a third party website that provides a transaction service. These include:

- The Planning Portal

We also receive comments, representations, allegations and questions via email, letter, and through our online forms.

Purpose for processing and lawful basis

The lawful basis under which we process your information and the linked reason for processing is:

- When processing your information is necessary to cooperate with and conform to UK law or another legal obligation to which the Council is subject.
- The purpose of processing is to carry out a task in the public interest or the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

In circumstance where none of the above lawful reasons apply we will only collect and use your information with your consent. Please note you can withdraw your consent to this processing at any time by contacting us at our main address (detailed below)

Who we may share your information with

We use your information to progress requests to access our services, or to administer our function as local authority. Your information may be manually and/or digitally processed through our systems by people in the UK. These may be internal council staff or external staff via other public authorities, contractors and other agencies. All people with access to your information will do so under strict adherence to Data Protection law, adequate safeguards and appropriate authorisation.

In order provide our services we may need to share your information with the following entities:

- City/District/Borough Councils
- Courts/Legal Services
- Government Agencies such as the Highways Agency
- Government departments
- Planning Inspectorate
- Police

In order to support a complaint or concern and comply with our obligations and duties as a local authority there may be occasions where we need to share your information with others such as our third party contractors. This will be where they may be required to support us with resolving your complaint or are required to take appropriate actions to rectify any concerns or issues raised by you.

There may also be occasion when we will share your information with relevant third parties when required to do so by law. Some information provided to us we are obliged under the regulations to make available on planning registers. This is a permanent record of our planning decisions that form part of the planning history of a site, along with other facts that form part of the "land search". We will make details of planning applications available online so that people can contribute their comments. If you are submitting supporting information which you would like to be treated confidentially or wish to be specifically withheld from the public register, please let us know as soon as you can - ideally in advance of submitting the application.

How long we will hold your information

There are provisions in UK law that dictate how long we can keep your information.

The Council will only hold and archive your information in line with its corporate retention schedule which has been compiled in accordance with UK legislation such as, but not limited to, the Health and Social Care Act, the Public Records Act and the Local Government Act.

Your rights

You have the following rights with regard to your personal information:

Walsall Council

Right to be informed – You have the right to know the following:

- what information we intend to collect,
- why we need your information,
- the lawful basis under which we can process your information,
- how we will process your information,
- whether we share your information,
- who we might share your information with,
- your rights until the law,
- how long we will retain your information and how you can contact us.

This Privacy Notice should have detailed all of the above but if for any reason you are dissatisfied with our stewardship of your information, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office (ICO), contact details are provided below.

Access to your information – If you would like to know what information we hold and process about you, the category of information, who we share your information with, to ascertain the accuracy of the information and the criteria we apply in processing your information, you can make a request to us in writing.

https://go.walsall.gov.uk/access\_to\_my\_personal\_records

WE should respond to your request within 30 days of receipt but if the request is complex and more time is required we will inform you in writing.

Rectification of your information – If it is established that information we hold about you is incorrect, you have the right to request that we correct this information.

Erasure of your information – In cases where the information we hold about you is no longer required in relation to the purpose for which it was collected and where there are no lawful grounds for holding your information, you can request an erasure of information.

The Right to Restrict processing –You can restrict us from using your information if you believe the data is inaccurate or if there are no lawful grounds for using the information but you do not want us to delete the information. In addition you can prevent us from deleting information we no longer use or need if you require it for a legal claim or defence. Following investigation, if it is determined that the right to restrict processing should not apply the Council will inform you of reasons for this before the restriction is lifted.

Right to Object – If you object to the Council using your information in the ways detailed above we will cease to process your information unless we can show there are legitimate reasons which override your interests

Whether or not you have legitimate grounds to object to processing of your information, the Council will respond to your request within one month stating that your request has been upheld or the reasons for not upholding your request if that is the case.

Automated Decision Making-You have the right not to be subject to a decision which affects you, which is solely based on automated processing. This will include profiling.

This right will not apply if the automated decision making is necessary in anticipation of entering into a contract or if it is authorised in law. You can give us explicit consent to be subject to automated decision making but you can remove this consent at any time.

Please be aware that the application of some of these rights is dependant upon the lawful basis for us to process your information. If you ask to enforce a right which is not applicable due to the reason for us processing the data we will explain the reasons for not upholding your request.
